

Leadership

Not only do companies need women to step up as leaders, the worldwide aviation industry is slowly making strides to have more women in leading positions.

As a professional pilot you can make a difference and can become a leader in your own right. Would you like to learn how to be an Aviation leader?

The Professional Pilot Leadership Initiative (PPLI) is a structured mentoring program that will connect you with other supportive Ninety-Nines.

It will help you to develop and enhance your leadership talents and qualities, and it will assist you to strengthen and advance your career progress.

Professional Pilot Leadership Initiative

PPLI Mission Statement

To develop diverse women pilots as leaders in the aviation/aerospace industry. By facilitating mentoring and developing our leadership skills, the PPLI program provides highly motivated 99s members with tools to develop their careers and leadership abilities through guided activities and formal mentoring partnerships with experienced women professional pilots. Together, we strengthen and expand the network of diverse women pilots and leaders.

Who Could Apply

The program consists of 3 phases:

Captain Phase

As the Captain of a flight does, you will be in charge of setting your course. Along with your mentors, you will develop a Flight Plan – our goal-setting framework, to help you achieve your short and long-term career goals. You will also start working on your leadership skills.

Captains' Circle Phase

The second phase of the program is focused on peer mentoring, where our participants actively engage on selected topics of discussion. You will continue to make progress on your Flight Plan and Leadership Activities

Navigator Phase

It's time for you to mentor, and help steer another woman pilot along her path! You will give guidance, support, and encouragement as your Captain develops a plan to pursue her goals. You will also continue progressing on your Flight Plan and complete your Leadership Activities.
