

99 Charter Biography File

Maiden Name: Cecil W. "Teddy" MacGlashan

Married Name(s): Kenyon

Date of birth: September 11, 1905

Birthplace: Dobbs Ferry, New York

Date of death: December 13, 1985

Death place: Middletown, Connecticut

Occupation(s): pilot

License(s): 9949; 1929

Known stats:

1. 1933 Amateur Sportsman Championship winner (29 out of 39 contestants were men)

Publications:

1. McDonough, Sally. "Teddy Kenyon." The 99 News. Jan-Feb. 1986. Page 9. (death notice)
2. Macakay, Maranne. "The Soaring Spirit of Women in Aviation." Fairfield County Woman. Dec. 1983. Pps. 6-9.
3. Coughlin, William P. "Cecil (Teddy) Kenyon, at 80; pioneer woman aviator set records." Unknown publisher/date.
4. "Rites for 'Teddy' Kenyon, pioneering aviator, at 80." Unknown publisher/date.
5. Spitzler, Andrew. "Cecil Kenyon, Aviation Pioneer, Dead at 80; Services on Friday." Unknown publisher/date.
6. Ryan, Bill. "Teddy Kenyon a pioneer in 'fun' period of flying." The Hartford Times. July 14, 1964.

Award(s):

1. 1935 Kimball Cup Award
2. 1953 Lady Hay Drummond Trophy by WIAA

Miscellaneous information:

1. Married Theodore W. Kenyon (1908-1980) in 1926; no children
2. Cecil already went by "Teddy" before she was married; she hated the name Cecil
3. She's a descendant of Alexander Hamilton
4. Husband Ted invented the Kenyon Gyro

99 Charter Biography File

File contents:

1. One color photo of Melba Gorby Beard, Nancy Hopkins Tier, and Teddy Kenyon 1979
2. 12 photocopies of black and white pictures – no originals